DEPARTURE DAY

Pick-up, Meeting of the Waters and caimans

Our team picks you up at your hotel in the Manaus metropolitan area or at the airport and takes you to the speedboat at Ceasa harbor. We cross the famous Meeting of the Waters and the tour begins. In Careiro we drive along the BR-319 to the Mamori River (about 1 hour) and board canoes to the Amazon Ipanema Lodge. After check-in and a self-service lunch, at 3 p.m. we head out by motorized canoe into the flooded forest, the igapós, exploring lakes and islands until sunset over Ipanema Lake. At night, after dinner, caiman spotting and the observation of nocturnal animals.

Hour by hour

07:00 — Pick-up at your hotel or the airport
Between 7:00 and 7:30, depending on where you are: hotel in the Manaus metropolitan area or Eduardo Gomes airport (MAO). The exact time comes on WhatsApp the day before.

08:00 — Transfer to the speedboat
We take you to the speedboat at Ceasa harbor. This is where the tour begins.

08:20 — Meeting of the Waters
The dark Rio Negro and the sandy Solimões run side by side for kilometers without mixing, giving birth to the Amazon River. Photo stop.

09:00 — Careiro and the BR-319
Landing in Careiro and transfer by road to the Mamori River, about 1 hour.

10:00 — Canoe to the lodge
We board the canoes and sail the Mamori River to Ipanema Lake.

11:30 — Check-in and lunch
Welcome to the Amazon Ipanema Lodge. Settle into your air-conditioned room, then a self-service lunch with regional food.

15:00 — Motorized canoe into the igapós
We explore the flooded forest, its lakes and islands, looking for birds, monkeys, sloths and river dolphins.

17:45 — Sunset over Ipanema Lake
The sky turns gold over the water. One of the best photos of the trip.

19:30 — Dinner at the lodge

20:30 — Caiman spotting
By canoe and flashlight, the guide finds caimans and other nocturnal animals along the banks.

Times are approximate. The guide adapts the schedule to the weather, the river level and the wildlife of the day.

DAY 2 OF 5

Sunrise, river dolphins and a night in the jungle

The day starts early with a paddle canoe trip to watch the sunrise among exotic birds and wild river dolphins, both grey and pink. Then we trek into the forest to discover its fauna, flora and the fascinating world of insects up close. In the late afternoon we head into primary jungle and set up camp for an unforgettable night in the heart of the forest.

Hour by hour

05:30 — Sunrise by paddle canoe
Silent paddling on the lake at dawn, with exotic birds and wild grey and pink river dolphins.

07:30 — Breakfast at the lodge

08:30 — Guided jungle trek
Fauna, flora and the fascinating world of insects, with a local guide born in the forest.

12:00 — Lunch at the lodge

13:30 — Free time
Rest in the hammocks or swim in the river where the guide says it is safe.

16:00 — Into the primary jungle
We walk into untouched forest and set up camp with hammocks and mosquito nets.

19:00 — Dinner at the camp
Around the fire, with the sounds of the forest at night.

20:00 — A night in the jungle
Survival techniques with the guide and a night few people ever experience.

Times are approximate. The guide adapts the schedule to the weather, the river level and the wildlife of the day.

DAY 4 OF 5

Deep jungle and a night with locals

The deepest exploration of the expedition: a multi-hour trek, at the group's pace, through the world of medicinal and shamanic plants; insects such as tarantulas and scorpions; mammals such as monkeys and tapirs; snakes such as the anaconda; and birds such as toucans, macaws and hawks. In the late afternoon we reach a riverside family home and spend the night in the community, with a farewell dinner, night canoeing and traditional arrow fishing.

Hour by hour

Good to know

Climate
Hot and humid all year, usually between 24 and 33 °C, and rain can come at any time. Light clothes that dry fast work best.

River seasons
The water level changes a lot during the year. Your guide adapts routes and activities to the river, the weather and the wildlife of the day.

Luggage
Travel with a small backpack. Most hotels in Manaus store larger luggage while you are in the jungle.

Health
The yellow fever vaccine is recommended for the Amazon (at least 10 days before the trip). Check with your doctor or a travel clinic.

Connectivity
Expect little or no phone signal and no internet in the jungle. Let family know before you go.

Safety
Always follow the guide's instructions. Swimming only where the guide says it is safe.
